

SECURITY TRACKER 5.0

U.K.

Small and medium sized enterprises need to prioritise the security of their confidential information. Simply being aware of the laws isn't enough. Protocols need to be put in place to ensure ongoing protection against a data breach.

SMEs

- AWARENESS of legal information security requirements
- Have a locked container in the office for documents to be shredded
- Provide training for staff on information security policies and procedures at least once a year
- Have protocols for disposing of confidential data and are adhered to by staff
